

HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY CONVOCATION 2012

History and Philosophy undergraduate degree candidates check in for their convocation ceremony .

History graduate degree candidates.

Elaine Sampson, Office Manager for the History Graduate Studies Program, served as a Marshal.

Professors Ronald Toby, Bruce Levine, and James Brennan (History Faculty)

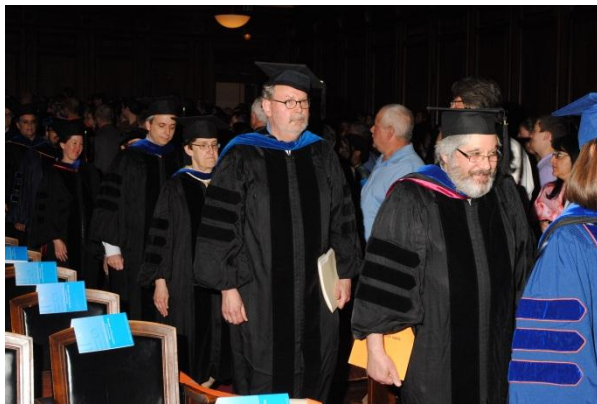

The venue: Smith Memorial Hall

Carol Symes, Associate Professor and Director of Undergraduate Studies in the Department of History, served as the Master of Ceremonies.

Katie Godwin, History Graduate Student, leads the procession as a Marshal.

The History & Philosophy Faculty Procession

The History & Philosophy Faculty on the stage.

Elaine Sampson leads the degree candidate procession.

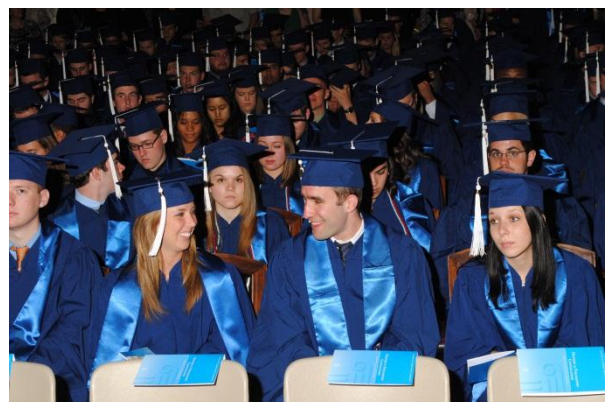

History PhD Degree Candidates

Proud family members and guests take pictures of the degree candidates.

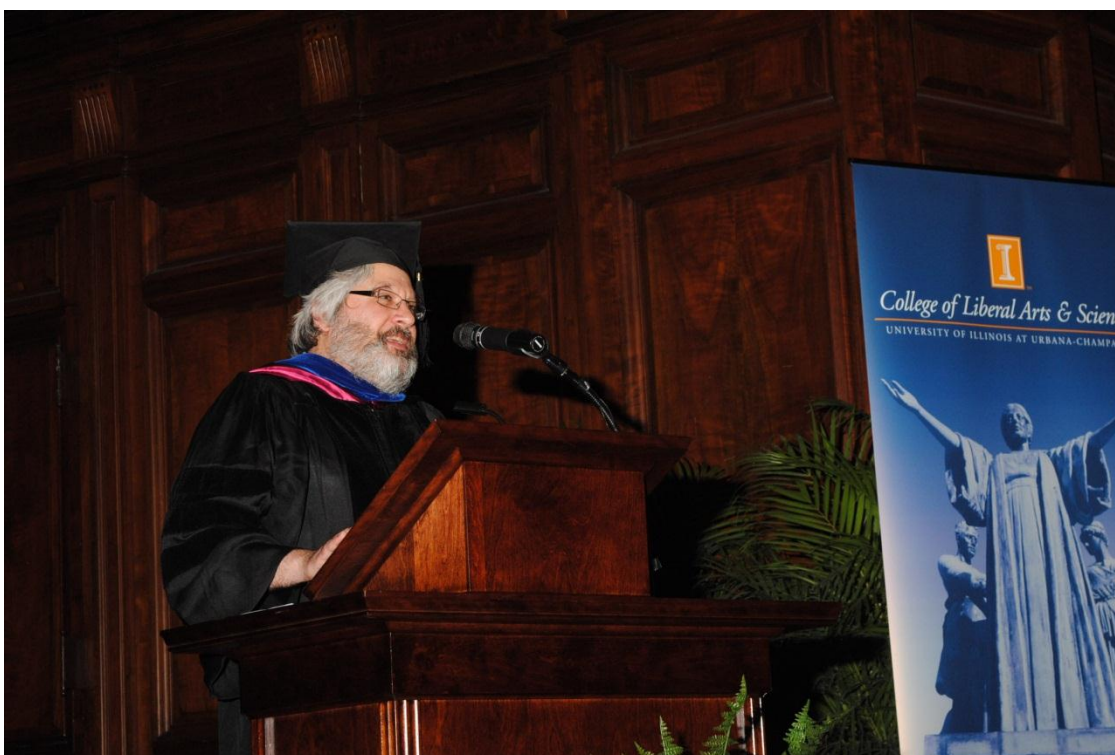

Stephen Bruce and Pompilia Burcica, History graduate students, served as Marshals.

History and Philosophy Bachelor of Arts Degree Candidates

Barbara Hancin-Bhatt, Assistant Dean and Director for International Programs, brought greetings from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Mark Leff, Associate Professor in the Department of History, served as the Convocation Speaker.

A view of the stage from the balcony.

CONGRATULATIONS
CLASS OF 2012!